Re: SBA Shipyard Superfund Site, Jefferson Davis Parish, Louisiana
CERCLIS# LAD008434185
CERCLA 104(e) Information Request

Dear Mr. Talton:

This is the response of Cytec Industries Inc. ("Cytec") to the United States Environmental Protection Agency's ("EPA") Request for Information dated January 11, 2017 regarding the above-referenced site (the "RFI"). Cytec appreciates the extension of time for this response.

This response is based upon Cytec's search for documents and information in its possession relating to the SBA Shipyards and those affiliate persons and entities identified in the RFI. Cytec reserves its rights to continue to review and to supplement, modify, and/or amend its responses should additional information become available.

4. On December 9, 2015, the outstanding common stock of respondent Cytec was purchased by Solvay S.A., a Belgian Public Company. By virtue of this acquisition, Cytec is now a wholly owned subsidiary of Solvay Holdings Inc. During the time period relevant to this request, Cytec was a global manufacturer of specialty chemicals and materials. During the relevant time period, Cytec operated several divisions and subsidiaries. It's specialty chemical division manufactured coating resins, flocculants, plastic additives, surfactants, and phosphine derivatives. Cytec's building block chemicals division manufactured melamine, acrylonitrile and sulfuric acid. Cytec Engineered Materials Inc., a wholly owned subsidiary of Cytec, manufactured carbon fiber, pre-impregnated carbon fiber and aerospace adhesives. Prior to the acquisition by Solvay, Cytec was traded on the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE:CYT). Addition information may be obtained from Cytec's previous public filings.
